

APRIL WINE BUYER'S GUIDE: for a CHANGE of SEASON

Welcome to our April Wine Buyer's guide. On the turn of the season, we've selected a few specials from across our range we think will send ease you out of summer and into golden Autumn weather. As always we're confident the selection will hold everything you need, to compliment an evening out with friends, celebrate an occasion, or be the perfect pairing (and great value!) for dinner at home.

Devil's Staircase Pinot Noir
Central Otago, New Zealand

DEVIL'S STAIRCASE
CENTRAL OTAGO
PINOT NOIR

BIG BARREL PRICE

$23.99
EACH

The Devil's Staircase wines are inspired by the winding road leading from Queenstown to Kingston along the shores of Lake Wakatipu. The unrelenting Central Otago environment tortures the vines whose twisted limbs produce a wine worthy of absolution. Devil's Staircase has long been the tongue-in-cheek, fun side of the Rockburn winery who has consistently produced amongst New Zealand's finest Pinot Noirs for many vintages. The latest of this range is sensual with lashings of dark fruit, sinfully succulent and devilishly good. Aromas of black Doris plums, blueberries and dark cherries. A very fruity, rich and supple palate with long smooth finish and soft tannins. Vegan.

MUD HOUSE
HAWKE'S BAY
MERLOT

BIG BARREL PRICE

$14.99
EACH

Mud House Merlot
Hawke's Bay, New Zealand

Sourced from carefully selected vineyards in the Hawke's Bay, the oldest wine region in New Zealand, the Mud House Merlot is soft and medium-bodied. The palate is full of juicy plum and blackberry, spiced with mint, black pepper and warming aniseed spice, and the finish is long and generous. A perfect room-temperature-serving red, great with red meats and charred green vegetables, this is a wine you can stock up in and enjoy from now through winter and beyond, comfortably rewarding time in the cellar for the next 3 years.

APRIL WINE BUYER'S GUIDE: CHANGE of SEASON

DeBortoli King Valley 'KV' Prosecco King Valley, Australia

Family = Passion. De Bortoli has established itself over centuries as Australia's largest family owned winery. Sustainable and efficient vineyard practices deliver the evidence of that passion, as well as amazing value for wines we love, such as this wallet-friendly prosecco. Pale with green hues. Fruit-driven with hints of green apple and wisteria. It tastes of apple and pear with fresh pithy lemon, gentle creaminess, it is completed with the very fine sparkle that we call 'bead'.

Jules Taylor Sauvignon Blanc Marlborough

When Jules talks about Sauvignon Blanc, clouds part and celestial choirs sing. This is the wine Jules loves because it is so expressive of the site where it's grown. It's a grape that, within a row - and even within a bunch - has a mind-blowing range of full-throttle flavour, just the way Jules likes it. This Sauvignon Blanc's intense flavours and juicy acidity make it a great wine to pair with different dishes. Try it alongside casual fresh sourdough dunked in good quality olive oil and plenty of dukkah, or for a main course try crispy skinned snapper fillet with warm puy lentils and a herby lemon sauce.

Grant Burge Fifth Generation Shiraz Barossa Valley, Australia

Located in the heart of South Australia's famed Barossa Valley, Grant Burge produce classic Barossa wines recognised all over the world for consistent quality. A brooding wine filled with deep fruit notes of blackberry and plum with spice and oak notes to balance. Equally happy served at the BBQ as it is matched with a hearty winter dish, this is a wine that continues to impress year on year.
